

Artist Talk with Alicia Cobb

Description

In this talk, Alicia speaks with students about the ability for everyone to discover their passion and purpose. Alicia will share her own story about her journey to purpose, leading to her career as a professional artist. She will share milestones as well as challenges faced along the way. Students will participate in a written exercise to help them gain clarity in their own journeys; ending with a Q&A so that students will have the opportunity to gain more insight on some of the information received during the talk as well as receive advice on their own pursuits.
